From the Files

by Chip

And they're off! Not the recently run Run for the Roses but all the Perth Golf Course Leagues.

The Tuesday Ladies teed it up earlier this week, as did Men's Twilite, under the guidance of Ed Carnrite, who, has more free time on his hands since the demise of the Senators. Go Hawks Ann Buchanan's Wednesday night Gals start this week.

Doug Niblock's Thursday Seniors trudge out May 6. Doug's slugs had a pre cursor to the regular season last week and Jim Baxter showed that a winter in Florida didn't hinder his game opening with an 83 in cold blustery conditions. Tom Browne and Ron Manson were a stroke back.

Marcel Leveille had a Skin on #3 and Paul Campbell had one on #4. Bob Giroux picked the remaining skin on # 8. Paul Waite and John Fawcett sawed each other off on # 17.

Ted Lemaistre, Niblock, Giroux and Waite were hole winners.

Everyone is welcome on Thursday morning. The only requisite is being able to make it to the first tee.

The popular Mixed Twilite, again under the watchful eye of Ed Carnrite- Season Friday May 7.

Woe is me ! The Fed Up Cup is nearing it's first full month of play and Commish Greg Anderson is still pointless. Even Ken Maidment picked up one in his initial appearance last week. Bob Strachan still leads ,followed closely by Steve March . A plethora of others, including Ron Thornbury and Elaine Turner are also on the board. But, still no Greg.

New golf director and general manager Russ DaSilva is on board full time and already making his mark with some great offers for the Thursday night Industrial league players. He'll explain them all in the next few weeks. He also has a few rabbits under his hat so drop by the shop and introduce yourself. Look for some new merchandise in the pro shop and some specials for the green fee player.
