The Thursday Seniors hosted Lombard Glen for the first of a home and home series. When the dust had settled Perth won five matches, Lombard Glen one, another was tied and no one could figure out who won the last before they were late for lunch.

Andy Hall fired a fine 76 ,one ahead of Tom Critelli ,and, two better than Jim Baxter and Bill Kelso.

Seven players shared a meagre skins pot. BobGiroux, Bob Mount, Gary Patterson, Baxter, Kelso, Critelli and Lombard's Warner West.Tom Browne, Ed Carnrite, Martin Yates, Marcel Leveille, Mount and Baxter were hole winners. The Longest drive to the younger set went to Ray Kilpatrick, the over 70 honours went to Mount and the over 75 to John Gemmill of Lombard.

The Men's competitive team, on the road this weekend in Potsdam for the annual St Lawrence event, wound up third during the annual Intersectional matches. Matt Heney and Tom Vickers collected the maximum six points; Dan Bourque had three, as did Andrew Miller, and Joe Jarbeau, Mike Fielding and Kevin Bellamy each picked up a pair.

It been a long time since a report was filed on the Monday Fred Up Cup, so long that Greg Anderson has finally hit the scoreboard with a single point. It still leaves him well down the leaderboard still topped by season long front runner Steve March. Bob Strachan is second and Ken Maidment and Bob Leitch are tied for third.

The Tuesday Ladies Two Day Low Net event took two weeks to complete but in the end it was Lisa Hasler besting Mary Lynne Wilson by seven strokes. Carol Muir had the only birdie and there were no Chip Ins ion the second day but Dianne Brady had one during the opening round. Betty Manson had two birdies

It was another warm night but over 80 shooters came out for the regular Wednesday night ladies whack fest this time sponsored by Crain and Schooley Insurance.

Vicki Belanger and Wilson had the Longest Drives while Nancy Dodds and Gail McAdam were Closest to the Pin. Lisa Beamish was Nearest the Butterfly. Chef Don, as usual, spoiled everyone

The Men's Industrial League had their biggest crowd of the season., adding more qualifiers for the season ending trips, the Taylor Made Irons and the Million Dollar shootout. The Pro Shop Stiffs, even with the addition of new pro Jamie Alphabet , still lag well behind the pack.
